

ERASMUS STAFF TRAINING WEEK 2016
University of Liège (ULg)
March 7 – 11, 2016

The University of Liège (ULg) is happy to announce its ERASMUS Staff Training Week 2016 that will take place between 7 and 11 March 2016.

We propose you two themes:

1. Promoting gender equality and diversity for researchers: is the task finished? Exchange of practices and procedures

Target group: Universities' administrative & management staff committed to including a gender and diversity component in their work (strategy, human resources, international relations, finance).

2. Open Access: academic libraries' role within a moving context

Target group: librarians, but also more widely any staff member working in an academic library and concerned by the Open Access movement (director, scientist, lawyer, IT, etc.).

You will find the programme and the online application form on:
www.ulg.ac.be/staff-training

Working language: English

The application deadline is January 16th, 2016. Confirmations will be sent after February 1st. Please do not make travel arrangements before your participation is confirmed.

There are no participation fees. Participants are expected to cover their own travel and living expenses through the Erasmus Staff Mobility Programme for Training or otherwise.

For further information, do not hesitate to visit our website or to contact us.

We would be very thankful if you could share this information with colleagues who may be interested in the event.

We thank you in advance for your interest and look forward to welcoming you in Liège.
