

International Staff Training Week Università di Pisa, 26-30 September 2016

Dear colleagues,

It is our pleasure to inform you that the University of Pisa is organizing a Staff Training Week in the framework of the Erasmus + programme, to be held on 26-30 September 2016 in Pisa.

The training is open to all kinds of technical/administrative staff. It will include a presentation of the University of Pisa and of its International Office as well as several workshops on the many bureaucratic procedures and related issues. In the course of this week you will also be able to visit different departments at the University of Pisa city campus, whilst enjoying Bright 2016 on September 30, a special day devoted to the many researchers of our University.

Furthermore, you will also have the chance to experience the many artistic masterpieces that the city offers, together with a taste of true Tuscany lifestyle & cuisine. Not forgetting that the sun in September is still so warm...

Please find attached the programme and the application form; do not hesitate to contact us at cooperations@unipi.it in case you need further information or a greater explanation. The attached video will provide you with a flavor of the city and an overall idea of our city-wide campus structure.

We look forward to meeting you in Pisa,
The staff – International cooperation office.
